The New Translation - starting next week!

Over the last two months, there has been a whole series of these leaflets introducing briefly the new Mass translations. As from next weekend, it will be time to put them into practice - the whole of the Church in England and Wales is making this change at the same time.

There will be Order of Mass cards available, containing all the new words; we will need to be careful for the first few weeks while we get used to the changes. No doubt some of us will say the old words from time to time - it doesn't matter if we make some mistakes.

Of course our clergy have new words to learn as well, and no doubt they will occasionally stumble too!

Each Sunday we will have some commentary on a part of the Mass which has changed, and each week there will be evening meetings in both Beeston and Wollaton (so you can attend either if you can't make the meeting in your own parish) to reflect more deeply on the same topic.

We do hope you will come along to these and learn more about the Mass, the Eucharist and our faith.
