Our Changing Liturgy

3

When do we start using the new Mass Translation?

Although we have already received the official approval from Rome, it will still be some time before the new translation is being used in our parishes.

In England and Wales we will all begin using the new texts at the same time, to avoid any confusion. It is planned we will be able to celebrate Mass in the new translation from September onwards.

This gives us some time, over the next few months, to learn something about the changes, about how they will affect us and our liturgy and why they have been made. There will be a lot of resources available to help us to do this, both locally and nationally.

As well as the information that will appear in this newsletter, there will be lots of internet resources. If you want to find out a bit more, why not look at the Liturgy Office website: www.liturgyoffice.org.uk/

Once we start using the new translation, there will also be parish sessions which will help us to explore the new translation and our understanding of the Mass.

Please pray that we will all make the most of this opportunity to learn more about the Mass and to deepen our relationship with Christ.
